ATTACHMENT TO FORM LM-30 FOR Michael Brown
FOR THE YEAR 2005

This attachment addresses an apparent discrepancy between my Form LM-30 for 2005 and the enclosed LM-10 Report filed by Harley-Davidson Motor Company in my name

[The LM-10 filed by Harley-Davidson includes an allocation for in-plant office space and related expenses in Harley-Davidson's facility in Milwaukee, WI. The company provides such office space pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement and past practice under that agreement. On the enclosed LM-10, the company reported these amounts as having been received by me, although they clearly should have been reported under the name of IAM Local Lodge 78, as specifically contemplated and allowed by 29 U S C Section 433(a)(1) ("any payment or other thing of value to any labor organization") These amounts were not received by me, and I do not believe that it is correct for me to report them on my LM-30]

[The LM-10 filed by Harley-Davidson includes expenditures for travel, lodging, meals, and other expenses related to the work of myself and other company employees in staffing Harley-Davidson's exhibit at the annual Union Industries Show. That is a show where unionized companies advertise and show union-made products. I believe that such expenditures were received by myself and others as "any money or other thing of value payable by an employer to any officer or employee of a labor organization, who is also an employee of such employer, as compensation for, or by reason of, his service as an employee of such employer" as described in 29 U S C Section 186(c)(1). Thus, such expenditures are specifically excluded from LM-10 reporting by 29 U S C Section 433(a)(1). Similarly such expenditures are specifically excluded from LM-30 reporting by 29 U S C Section 432(a)(1) as "payments and other benefits received as a bona fide employee of such employer. Accordingly, I do not believe that it is correct for me to report them on my LM-30]

[The LM-10 filed by Harley-Davidson includes amounts for merchandize that I solicited from the company for a charity event called "Hawgs for Dogs, which is a fund-raising motorcycle rally for Harley-Davidson owners. Hawgs for Dogs rallies are run by local chapters of a 501(c)(3) charitable corporation called Guide Dogs of America, which trains and donates seeing-eye dogs. These chapters are chartered by Guide Dogs, and I solicited the company's merchandize on behalf of Guide Dogs. As such, the company's expenditures are clearly for and to a 501(c)(3) charitable organization and are not properly reportable on the company's LM-10. I do not believe that it is correct for me to report such expenditures on my LM-30]
